Stay where you're too til l comes where you're at: Transitioning in a New Era

Panel: Anne Whelan, CEO of Seafair Capital
Dr. Patrick Parfrey, Deputy Minister, Health Transformation
Honorable Roger Grimes, Former Premier of NL, Chair of C-NLOPB

Newfoundlanders and Labradorians have been well recognized for their ingenuity and ability to survive and thrive. Their long history of facing these challenging situations head-on, while working diligently to pivot and transition to fully utilize their surrounding resources to thrive in tough economic times has been widely applauded. While these challenges may be unique to this province, there are similar themes for each of the Atlantic provinces.

In this fireside moderated chat our esteemed guests the Honorable Roger Grimes, Dr. Pat Parfrey, Anne Whelan, will each share their candid views on the current issues, including the delivery and access to healthcare; interventions in the social determinants of health; moving to a green economy; political, economic and labour force challenges and demographics and immigration, to name a few. Our panelists will explore what is required to position not only Newfoundland and Labrador, but Atlantic Canada, to meet these new, present, and future challenges. This session is intended to be interactive - audience members will be invited to ask questions to make for an engaging session to end our 2024 Conference.
